Wall Street, Wednesday, Oct. 22-6 P. M. If rumors prove true it is one of the singular features of the present financial situation that the President of the United States has selected a "Mr. Williams," of the Metropolitan Bank of this city, as the intermediary through whom he proposes to communicate to the country the purposes of the administration. It is further significant that the person last named, either from anxiety to divert attention from his own institution or to advertise attention from his own institution or to advertise statements that may possibly "bull" stocks and thus enable his concern to get rid of ugly inoubl, has persistently during the day refused informa-tion, simple, concise, satisfactory and at his fingers' ends, and hugged the delusion that the Clearing louse to-morrow would lend magnificence to his mental idiosyncracy! To coin a word, Wall street and the public are being "besmitched" by the vanity of a man who has possibly, or possibly not, received an autograph letter from "N. Y. PRESIDENT GRANT, which simply repeats in substance what is already amiliar as fact. In brief, the latter, recognizing the monetary depression that exists, suggests to the banks a certain policy which involves simply ing House in the free use of loan certificates, and adds that he may encroach liberally on the $44,000,000 reserve. This statement of the President seems to have been regarded as a sort of Koh-i-noor—a rare administrative diamond, which warranted the assembling of bank magnates.
Hence, to-morrow we are to have another farce—perhaps a series of resolutions—and it may be some preposterous action, based on the respectable egotism of an innocent too vain to answer questions that concern

A MILLION OF ANXIOUS PROPLE and too conceited to realize that the telegraph could quickly antagonize all his insinuations. The facts simply stated are as follows, and it so happens that we obtain them personally from one of the highest authorities in the United States. The government will be required to use from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 of its reserve each month. This ha been anticipated and discounted. The outlay wi be made for government expenses and these alone The Treasury will not directly aid Wall street of the banks, or any portion of the commercial market. There has been no unusual purchase of exchange, except such small amounts as ma

CONSULAR AND DIPLOMATIC ACCOUNT. and none is contemplated. Finally, the President and his officials emphatically declared, even as late as Monday night, that they recognized no cause for larm, and that the government would in no wis transcend the limit of the law. Similar encourage ing statements were made weeks ago and the repetition now is like a thrice told tale; but i seems as if speculators were glad to catch at an Association to-morrow and hope to read this wonderful letter that has set the street agog.

Most of the business to-day was done on th basis of seven per cent currency and gold. The monetary situation seems to be growing easier every hour, and there is good reason to believe the prediction will come true that in sixty days currency will be a drug. The banks gaine $1,000,000 in legal tenders to-day and the inflow i increasing. Greater facilities are being extended to merchants, favorable reports are coming in from the country, collections are more readily made, discounts are more readily obtainable, and Foreign exchange closed firmer, prime banker sixty day sterling calling for 106% and sight drafts premium of % per cent over certified checks.

THE GOLD MARKET. Gold was steady at 108% a 108%. The rates paid for carrying to-day were 5, 4, 3 and 6 per cent for borrowing flat. The final rate was 6 per cent for carrying. The prices of gold to-day were:-
